Office Hours: Monday to Friday 9:00 am to 3:45 pm by appointment

Plus, Wednesday 5:00 pm to 5:45pm

Mode of Instructional Delivery:

Face-to-Face: Delivery of instruction is structured around in-person classroom meeting times. Instruction is delivered in person and students are expected to attend class. (Sometimes referred to as traditional classroom courses)

Course Description:

A study of selected problems in the 20th century using film as a window into history. The material for the course will include documentary films, newsreels, TV news films, and theatrical feature films as well as selected readings. This course may be used to satisfy a three credit 300 level GER in History and Humanities.

Prerequisites: HUM 102 with a grade of C or higher, and a course fulfilling the History and Humanities GER 200 level course with a grade of C or higher.

Course Objectives:

Knowledge of history is of the greatest importance due to the fact that the world we live in today is the direct result of various historical developments. The students of the course will analyze historical events and movements of World War One and assess their subsequent significance. Students will use critical thinking and problem-solving skills to analyze information and develop their writing skills by producing three short reaction papers.

Course Goals:

Upon completion of this course, students should specifically be able to do the following:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of the fundamental concepts and historical events and ideas related to World War One.
2. Evaluate global exchanges and perspectives in context of social, political, religious, and intellectual traditions of the Great War.
3. Read, analyze, organize and synthesize evidence, historical problems, and interpretations connected to the history of World War One.

Measurable Course Performance Objectives (MPOs):

Upon successful completion of this course, students should specifically be able to do the following:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of some of the fundamental concepts and theories of historical events and ideas related to World War One.
 - 1.1 Identify and describe key terms, names and places of major events of the history of World War One.
 - 1.2 Evaluate the validity of various interpretations of historical events and institutions.
 - 1.3 Clarify and summarize information pertaining to historical events and ideas in Short Reaction Papers.
2. Evaluate global exchanges and perspectives in context of social, political, religious, and intellectual traditions.
 - 2.1 Identify historically important places and nation states on historical maps.
 - 2.2 Discuss social structures, religious ideas and institutions, and intellectual traditions.
3. Read, Analyze, organize, and synthesize evidence, historical problems, and interpretations connected to the history of World War One
 - 3.1 Use primary and secondary sources to show how historical problems are confronted.
 - 3.2 Conduct research and explore reliable resources on the history of World War One.

Lecture: Paths of Glory (10/09/24)

Discussion Group #3 (10/16/24)

"Patriotism is the last refuge of the scoundrel."

This quote from Paths of Glory makes me wonder if Corporal Paris, Private Ferrol, Private Arnaud, and the rest of company B were truly guilty of cowardice or wither Stanley Kubrick is simply making us feel sorry for them? Do you believe these men are cowards or simply victims of the ambitious General Mireau?

Reaction Paper #3 Due 10/16/24

Lecture: They Shall Not Grow Old (10/23/24)

Discussion Group #4 (10/30/24)

They Shall Not Grow Old is not a full-Length Hollywood movie, it is a documentary. What major/minor differences do you see between these two formats?

Reaction Paper #4: due 10/30/24

Stephen Dalton of the Hollywood Reporter stated that They Shall Not Grow Old “suggests new cinematic methods of rescuing history from the history books, humanizing and dramatizing true stories with a modest injection of movie-world artifice...an immersive primer on the firsthand experiences of British soldiers, this innovative documentary is a haunting, moving and consistently engaging lesson in how to bring the past vividly alive.” What examples of real life in the trenches registered with you the most? And why?

Textbook Reading: Stone Chapter 3
(10/30/24)

Reading: A Few Thoughts on “They Shall Not Grow Old.”

Lawrence of Arabia -1962 (11/20/24) & (12/4/24)

Lecture: The Middle East Since WWI (12/11/23)

Lecture: Lawrence of Arabia (11/20/24)

Discussion Group #6 (12/11/24)

The film Lawrence of Arabia reminds us that World War One was not just fought in Europe. What depictions of war in the deserts of the middle east did you find as different from the trench warfare we saw on the Western Front (where all of our previous films have taken place).

Final Reaction Paper: Due 12/11/24

Racism and World War One:

During the early 20th Century, most Europeans believed that they were racially superior to everyone else on the planet. What examples of racism do you see in Lawrence of Arabia? Do you believe that T.E. Lawrence was himself racist? Is this a racist movie overall, or a triumph of the art of cinema? What other forms of racism did you note in the other films we have watched in the class?

Map Quiz: The Middle East (12/04/24)

Textbook Reading: Stone Chapters 5&6 (12/11/23)

Reading: Never Forget That World War I Was Also Racist.
